

Duties and Responsibilities of the NYCAL Special Master

Administration

- Ensure that the NYCAL operates efficiently and that deadlines are met
- Establish and publish calendar of all critical events
- Regularly establish deadlines and due dates for the approximately 1000 cases that go through the NYCAL system each year
- Issue memoranda relating to procedures, practices and deadlines
- Ensure that all counsel comply with CMO and procedures
- Intervene with respect to NOSJMs to eliminate unnecessary motion practice
- Orient counsel new to the litigation

Communication

- Maintain and review website and coordinate with Webmaster with respect to all information posted.
- Ensure website is kept up to date
- Arrange for important decisions, orders and other critical information to be posted as needed.
- Collect remaining defendant lists periodically
- Work with liaison counsel on any and all issues that arise
- Convene meetings as needed to review and improve procedures, resolve issues or amend the CMO
- Assist and confer with the coordinating judge and Chambers staff with respect to all aspects of the litigation
- Coordinate with trial judges on all aspects of cases before them
- Meet periodically with trial judges

Clustering Cases

- Receive and review applications for in extremis clusters
- Issue in extremis cluster lists and update periodically
- Collect and review medical and forum objections
- Hear argument on and decide medical and forum objections
- Follow up on pending medical and forum objections to ensure that all cases comply with requirements for in extremis docket
- Collect information on Active Docket FIFO cases from each plaintiff's firm
- Devise and implement FIFO discovery schedule for each FIFO group issued
- Oversee and mediate disputes regarding the medical certification of FIFO cases
- Oversee and mediate disputes between plaintiffs' counsel and Defense Discovery Liaison Counsel regarding discovery deadlines in each FIFO group

Discovery

- Supervise, attempt to resolve and where necessary rule on all discovery disputes including but not limited to issues arising during hundreds of

Duties and Responsibilities of the NYCAL Special Master

depositions, compliance with basic NYCAL discovery, requests for additional discovery, requests for depositions of experts and corporate witnesses

- Available 24/7 for unscheduled calls and conferences to address emergency discovery issues as they arise, including but not limited to pre-trial disputes and de bene esse depositions
- Review documents, deposition transcripts and other materials, including materials submitted for in camera review as part of the discovery supervisory process
- Issue detailed written recommendations at the request of the non-prevailing party regarding unresolved discovery issues pursuant to the CMO
- Set up protocol for discovery conference for each in extremis cluster
- Review submitted issues, hear argument and attempt to resolve without court intervention
- Schedule unresolved issues for court conferences

Trial

- Set up protocol for trial readiness conference for each in extremis cluster
- Review submitted objections, hear argument and attempt to resolve without court intervention
- Schedule unresolved issues for court conferences
- Solicit and review objections to trial readiness for all cases not at issue in the two semi annual conferences, hear argument if necessary and attempt to resolve
- Notify coordinating judge when cases are ready for trial assignment

Execution of Documents

- Review and sign adequacy orders (as many as 750 per month)
- Review and sign allocation orders (as many as 200 per month)

Settlement

- Establish and promulgate settlement conference schedules for as many as 8 plaintiff's firms and hundreds of defendants covering in extremis and FIFO cases
- Conduct settlement conferences in New York and also by telephone when appropriate
- Follow up on settlement progress
- Intervene to resolve cases that are on trial

Duties and Responsibilities of the NYCAL Special Master