This document relates to:

This document applies to all cases in which LESLIE CONTROLS, INC. ("LESLIE") is named as a Defendant or Third-Party Defendant

Index No.: 40,000/88

NOTICE OF SUGGESTION OF BANKRUPTCY

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE, that on July 12, 2010 defendant, LESLIE CONTROLS, INC. ("LESLIE") filed a voluntary Petition for relief under chapter 11 of title 11 of the United States wrongful death claims arising from Code (the "Bankruptcy Code") in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware .(Attachment 1.) This case is being administered under case number 10-12199.

In accordance with the automatic stay imposed by operation of section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code, from and after the Petition Date, no cause of action may be commenced or continued against LESLIE and no judgment may be entered or enforced against LESLIE outside the Bankruptcy Court without the Bankruptcy Court first issuing an Order lifting or modifying the automatic stay for such specific purpose. Further, in accordance with the Order Granting Debtor's Emergency Motion for Temporary Restraining Order issued by the Bankruptcy Court on July 14, 2010, the stay described herein applies equally to claims against CIRCOR International, Inc. or its affiliates and/or Watts Water Technologies, Inc. (formerly known as Watts Industries, Inc.) or its affiliates, (Attachment 3), to the extent that those claims assert personal injury or or otherwise based on purported exposure to asbestos for which LESLIE is allegedly liable, as more fully defined in the Temporary Restraining Order, so long as said Order shall remain in effect. (Attachment 2.)

ORDER GRANTING DEBTOR'S EMERGENCY MOTION FOR TEMPORARY RESTRAINING ORDER

This matter comes before the Court on the motion (the "Emergency Motion") of Leslie Controls, Inc. (the "Debtor" or "Leslie"), as debtor and debtor in possession in the above Chapter 11 case, pursuant to sections 105(a) and 362(a) of title 11 of the United States Code (the "Bankruptcy Code") and Rule 65 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, made applicable hereto by Rule 7065 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the "Bankruptcy Rules"), for (1) a preliminary injunction pending final adjudication of this Chapter 11 proceeding, enjoining the commencement or continuation of all actions against (a) the Debtor's current parent company and sole shareholder, CIRCOR International, Inc., or any of its affiliates as listed on Exhibit 1 hereto (collectively, "CIRCOR") and/or (b) the Debtor's former parent company and sole shareholder, Watts Water Technologies, Inc. (formerly known as Watts Industries, Inc.) or any of its affiliates as listed on Exhibit 2 hereto (collectively, "Watts") (collectively with CIRCOR, the "Protected Parties"), to the extent that those actions against the Protected Parties assert personal injury or wrongful death claims based on purported exposure to asbestos for which Leslie is allegedly liable as more fully defined below ("Leslie Derivative Liability Claims"); (2) a temporary restraining order pending a hearing and ruling on the motion for a preliminary injunction; and alternatively (3) a declaratory judgment that the automatic stay of section 362(a) of the Bankruptcy Code stays the commencement or continuation of any and all actions or other proceedings that allege Leslie Derivative Liability Claims against the Protected Parties.

For purposes of this Order, "Leslie Derivative Liability Claims" are defined as any claim or action directed against a Protected Party asserting personal injury or wrongful death based on exposure or purported exposure to asbestos where such Protected Party is alleged to be directly or indirectly liable for the conduct of, claims against, or demands on Leslie to the extent such alleged liability of such third party arises by reason of (i) such Protected Party's ownership of a financial interest in Leslie, a past or present affiliate of Leslie, or a predecessor in interest of Leslie; (ii) such Protected Party's involvement in the management of Leslie or a predecessor in interest of Leslie, or service as an officer, director or employee of Leslie or a related party; (iii) such Protected Party's provision of insurance to Leslie or a related party; or (iv) such Protected Party's involvement in a transaction changing the corporate structure, or in a loan or other financial transaction affecting the financial condition, of Leslie or a related party, including but not limited to (aa) involvement in providing financing (debt or equity), or advice to an entity involved in such a transaction, or (bb) acquiring or selling a financial interest in an entity as part of such a transaction. As used in this paragraph, the term "related party" means (i) a past or present affiliate of Leslie; (ii) a predecessor in interest of Leslie; or (iii) any entity that owned a financial interest in (aa) Leslie, (bb) a past or present affiliate of Leslie, or (cc) a predecessor in interest of Leslie.

The Court having reviewed the Complaint and Motion, which includes a request for temporary restraining order pending a hearing and ruling on the motion for a preliminary injunction, all as more fully set forth in the Motion, the Debtor's memorandum of law in support of the Motion, and the declaration of Alan J. Glass in support of the Motion; and the Court having heard the statements in support of the relief requested at a hearing before the Court held and concluded on July 13, 2010 (the "Hearing"); and the Court having determined that the legal and factual bases set forth by the Debtor and at the Hearing establish just cause for the relief granted herein; and the relief sought in the Motion being necessary and in the best interests of the Debtor, its estate and all parties in interest; and upon all the proceedings held before the Court and after due deliberation and sufficient cause appearing therefor,

THE COURT FINDS AND CONCLUDES AS FOLLOWS:

1. The Court has jurisdiction over this adversary proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1334(b) and (e), and 157(b)(1). This adversary proceeding is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157(b)(2)(A), (B) and (O).

2. Venue in this District is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1409.

3. The plaintiff in this adversary proceeding is the Debtor Leslie Controls, Inc., a Delaware limited liability company that maintains its principal place of business in Tampa, Florida. The defendants in this adversary proceeding, listed on Exhibit 5 to the Debtor's Complaint, include asbestos plaintiffs who have asserted Leslie Derivative Liability Claims against CIRCOR and/or Watts. Defendants John Does 1-1000 and Jane Does 1-1000 are putative plaintiffs for future personal injury or wrongful death claims or demands against the Protected Parties.

4. The Debtor has demonstrated that it will suffer "immediate and irreparable injury, loss, or damage" in the absence of immediate relief before any adverse party can be heard in opposition. Fed R. Civ. P. 65(b). Without the temporary restraining order sought herein, the Debtor will suffer the following immediate and irreparable injury, loss, or damage:

(a) Continued litigation of Leslie Derivative Liability Claims against the Protected Parties could substantially impair CIRCOR's willingness to contribute to the Trust, and CIRCOR's proposed contribution is essential to the success of the proposed reorganization plan.

(b) Continued litigation of Leslie Derivative Liability Claims against the Protected Parties will place the Debtor at risk that potential adverse or inconsistent judgments in those cases could be used against the Debtor in future proceedings. Adverse rulings in any such case run the risk of binding the Debtor in future proceedings, or, at a minimum, being used as supporting authority against it.

(c) Continued litigation of Leslie Derivative Liability Claims against the Protected Parties will put the Debtor at risk that statements, testimony and other evidence generated in litigation against CIRCOR or Watts could be used against the Debtor in any subsequent litigation between the Debtor and asbestos claimants. Likewise, document requests, interrogatories, and other discovery will seek materials related to or controlled by the Debtor. As a result, the Debtor and its officers will be required to participate and defend themselves in lawsuits rather than focusing on reorganization.

(d) Continued litigation of Leslie Derivative Liability Claims against the Protected Parties could result in common law indemnity obligations that would arise against the Debtor from any successful litigation of those claims. These obligations would interfere with the Debtor's reorganization.

(e) Given the derivative nature of the Leslie Derivative Liability Claims against CIRCOR and Watts, and the risks adverse judgments, collateral estoppel, evidentiary prejudice, and indemnity obligations associated with those actions, Leslie and its officers and personnel would have no choice but to actively participate in the litigation of any Leslie Derivative Liability Claims in the absence of a restraining order. The additional burdens demanded by participation in any litigation against the Protected Parties could compromise the Debtor's ability to reorganize.

(f) The burden and expense of litigating the Leslie Derivative Liability Claims would also undermine the willingness and ability of key CIRCOR personnel to participate in the Debtor's reorganization.

For these reasons, a failure to grant a temporary restraining order would immediately and irreparably injure the Debtor.

5. The Debtor has notified electronically counsel of record for plaintiffs in the underlying Asbestos PI actions sought to be restrained of the filing of the petition in bankruptcy, the adversary complaint, and the motion for a preliminary injunction and a temporary restraining order. The Debtor will upon issuance of the TRO promptly notify those counsel and, by publication the public generally, of the TRO and the motion for a preliminary injunction.

6. Accordingly, the Court finds it appropriate to enter an ex parte temporary restraining order without further notice to Defendants pursuant to Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 7065. The Court finds good cause to issue a temporary restraining order enjoining and restraining the defendants and their counsel, holders of future demands and their counsel, and any other person or party, from commencement or any further prosecution of Leslie Derivative Liability Claims against the Protected Parties, for a period of fourteen (14) days to enable the Court to issue a ruling on Leslie Controls' motion for a preliminary injunction. Absent a temporary restraining order, numerous additional actions asserting Leslie Derivative Liability Claims will likely be filed against CIRCOR and/or Watts once plaintiffs' attorneys learn of the Debtor's petition.

7. The legal and factual bases set forth in the Motion and at the hearing establish just cause for the relief granted herein.

Based on these findings, the Court now ORDERS that:

1. All persons and entities, including without limitation the plaintiffs to the actions listed on Exhibits 3 and 4 hereto, are restrained from initiating or further prosecuting any Leslie Derivative Liability Claims against CIRCOR or any of its affiliates as listed on Exhibit 1 hereto, Watts or any of its affiliates as listed on Exhibit 2 hereto, or any employee, officer, director, or agent of CIRCOR or its listed affiliates or Watts or its listed affiliates, unless the complaint in the proceeding expressly alleges a basis for liability against those entities or persons other than liability arising from or otherwise relating to the products, acts, or omissions of Leslie Controls, Inc. This restraining order will expire on August 9, 2010, at 1 p.m.

2. A hearing on the Debtor's pending motion for preliminary injunction shall be held on August 9, 2010, at 1 p.m. in Courtroom 6 of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware, 824 North Market Street, Wilmington, Delaware.

3. This restraining order includes, without limitation: (a) the pursuit of discovery from CIRCOR or Watts, or any affiliates, officers, directors, employees, or agents thereof; (b) the enforcement of any discovery order against CIRCOR or Watts, or any affiliates, officers, directors, employees, or agents thereof; and (c) any further motions or litigation of pending motions in connection with Leslie Derivative Liability Claims.

4. Any party subject to this Order may seek relief from any of the provisions of this Order, including from the stay of further proceedings in this adversary proceeding, for cause shown. This Order is without prejudice to the Debtor's or others' rights to seek relief pursuant to the automatic stay in bankruptcy under 11 U.S.C. § 362.

5. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Order, any party asserting a Leslie Derivative Liability Claim may, without leave of the Court, take reasonable steps to perpetuate the testimony of any person subject to this Order who is not expected to survive the duration of this Order or who is likely to become incapacitated during the duration of this Order. Notice shall be provided to the Leslie and the Protected Parties by notifying undersigned counsel for the Debtors of the perpetuation of such testimony. Leslie and the Protected Parties shall have the right to object to the notice on any grounds they would have had if they were a party to the underlying proceeding and not subject to the terms of this preliminary injunction and may raise any such objection with this Court. The use of such testimony in any appropriate jurisdiction shall be subject to the applicable procedural and evidentiary rules of such jurisdiction. All parties reserve and do not waive any and all objections with respect to such testimony.

6. Pursuant to Rule 7065 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, the Debtors are relieved from posting any security payment pursuant to Rule 65(c) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure based upon the evidence in the record as to the solvency of the Debtor.

7. The Debtor shall serve a copy of this Order on counsel for the Defendants and on the United States Trustee within 3 days from the entry of this Order. It shall also cause to be published in the Wall Street Journal and USA Today notice of this restraining order and the filing of the adversary proceeding and the pending motion for preliminary injunction.

8. This Order shall promptly be filed in the clerk's office and entered in the record.

9. The Court retains jurisdiction over this Order and the relief granted herein.
